—A. C. Vogler calls attention, in another column, to his stock of furniture.

MARRIED—On the 15th inst., by P. A. Cox, Esq., Mr. Robert H. Crews and Miss Claudia M. Tally, both of Forsyth county.

—Mr. W. T. Pfohl, of Winston, has been commissioned as State organizer for the Knights of Labor in North Carolina.

—Prof. Agathe has resigned his position as Professor of Music in Salem Academy and moved with his family to Philadelphia.

—The Knoxville Furniture establishment being cramped for room on Liberty street has been moved into the Starbuck building on Main street.

—Arrangements are being made to run telegraph wires from Winston to the Salem Academy which will then have a telegraph office of its own.

—Mr. W. T. Dorsett, the live canvassing agent of the Winston Sentinel, has withdrawn from that paper and is now giving his attention to the Raleigh News and Observer.

—Temperature for the past seven days, taken at 9 a. m., by a Signal Service Thermometer, at Ashcraft & Owens' drug store:

December 14—45.	December 18—35.
" 15—40.	" 19—38.
" 16—29.	" 20—36.
" 17—36.	"

—The sale of the real estate of Messrs. Pfohl & Stockton was held at auction last Thursday. The three principal pieces of property were purchased by the following parties: The Central Hotel by Mr. Robert Belo, of Salem, the store building by Mr. Ed. Pfohl, the Merchant's Hotel by Capt. J. E. Gilmer. The property all sold low.

—An accident Friday evening in the residence of Rev. Mr. Clewell, in Salem, came near proving a very serious matter. His little boy got possession of a Christmas candle, which he lighted while alone in a room. In passing one of the windows the lace curtains were ignited, when the little fellow fainted with fright. Fortunately the sudden flash of light attracted attention and the fire was extinguished before much damage was done.

—The committee appointed by the board of county commissioners to inspect the new jail have reported it completed according to contract and the work has been accepted. The brick and carpenter work was done by Miller Brothers for $5,350. The steel cells by the Cincinnati Safe and Lock Company for $4,972.32, iron bars for windows by Salem Iron Works for $290.14, heating apparatus by J. A. Vance for $350, pipes, and placing the same, by Kester Brothers for $115, plan of building by Col. Hicks, of Raleigh, for $60, and incidental expenses about $22, making the total cost $11,158.95.

—The North Carolina legislature meets on the first Wednesday in January.

—Some of the State papers are discussing savings banks. Very good. There should be one or more in every town in North Carolina large enough to have use for them.

—Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of Pender county, in an article published in the Goldsboro Advance on the opium habit in North Carolina, says it is alarmingly on the increase.

—We invite attention to the advertisement of the State Chronicle, published in Raleigh. It is a capital paper in every respect and deservedly growing in popularity every day.

—Ex-Gov. Jarvis, Minister to Brazil, arrived at his home, Greenville, in Pitt county, with his wife, last week, and was given a cordial welcome. He has a leave of absence for five months.

—Mr. J. A. Bostic, of New York, has made Wake Forest College a gift of $50,000. This makes the endowment fund $164,000. He had previously made it a gift of $20,000 in interest-bearing bonds.

—Hon. James W. Reid, member of Congress from the 5th district of this State, seems to be in trouble. He has gotten in debt in some unexplained way to the estimated amount of about $35,000, with assets amounting to not more than one-fifth of that amount. His property is all heavily mortgaged. His whereabouts is not known. If in Washington he has not appeared on the floor of the House.

—On the 23rd of September, A. D. Owens, of Creswell, Washington county, was murdered. Suspicion rested on a desperate negro named Jim Ambrose, who was shot and killed in resisting arrest. Two other negroes and Mrs. Owens, wife of the murdered man, were arrested on suspicion. One of the negroes confessed. The case was removed for trial to Beaufort county where the jury last week found all three guilty. Mrs. Owens and one of the negroes were sentenced to the penitentiary for life. Judgment of the court on the other negro was withheld, at the request of the prosecution, for the present.

A SPECIAL OFFER.

Remember that the PROGRESSIVE FARMER and the Patch Corn Sheller (price $3) is offered to you for four dollars only. The President of Sandy Ridge Club has this to say of the Sheller, WINSTON, N. C., June 19, 1886.

Col. L. L. Polk:—At your request I took the Patch Corn Sheller and Separator and tested it. I am so well satisfied with it that I want to keep it and pay you for it. It is decidedly the best corn sheller for the price that I have ever seen, and in my judgment it should have a large sale among our farmers.

Respectfully,
J. H. REICH.
